

Why are we here? (Initial vision)

Provide South Liberty Public Library with an automated materials circulation program that meets the needs of business procedures in a modern, digital format. This new information system will provide patrons and staff with fast and efficient use of library resources. This new system will allow staff to be more available to patrons and improve customer service.